Learning outcomes

1

Identify systemic racial issues inherent in academic research and how to research marginalized voices within this system.

2

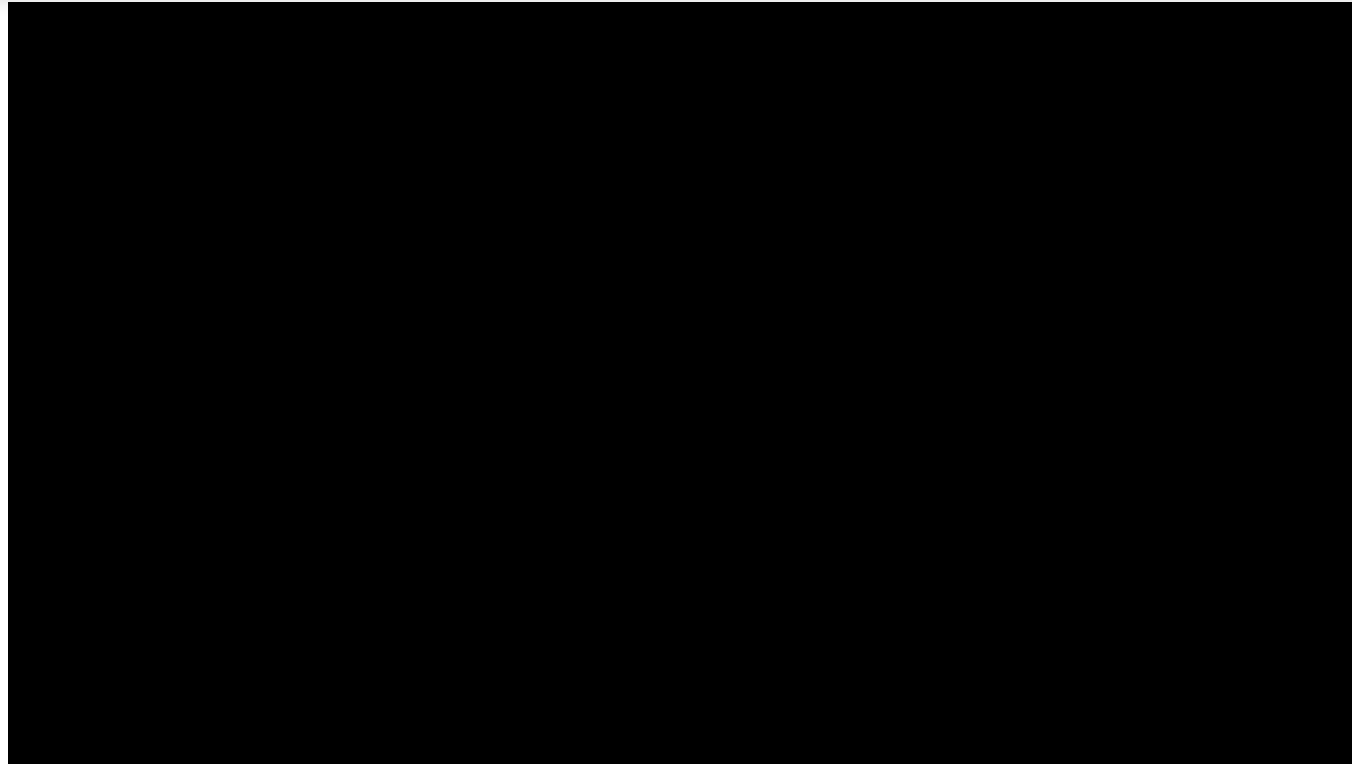

Describe the importance of including diverse voices in their own research and teaching.

3

Integrate ideas and strategies from the Finding Diverse Voices in Academic Research guide into their instruction.

Algorithms of Oppression

We created a guide to help students!

A thick yellow horizontal bar spans the width of the slide, with a vertical yellow bar extending downwards from its right end.

- Student Questions
 - No written directions available
 - Guided by ideas of counter-narrative
- A thin grey horizontal bar spans the width of the slide at the bottom.

The guide can help you as a teacher!

Activity: Part 1

1. Open the handout linked in the chat
2. Take 3-5 Minutes to personally answer and reflect on the section titled "Questions to Ask Yourself"

Share your answers or ideas

Activity: Part 2- 10 Minutes

1. With your group, look at the background and research strategies sections of the Finding Diverse Voices in Academic Research guide.
2. Then together answer questions in the "Group Questions" section of the handout
3. Go to the jamboard linked on the handout and share a strategy you learned today, have used before, or want to investigate more!

Don't forget to ask for help if you need it!!

Jamboard

Activity: Part 3

1. Once you and your group have finished the "Group Questions" Section, move on to the "Personal Goal Question"
